Lamb Will Never Taste So Good

This week we are serving Indian-style Lamb Shanks with rice. This delicious meal is being prepared by Ian Waller-Wilkinson and Sami Danni. The meal will consist of a small bowl of Sami's dahl soup followed by the main meal of frenched lamb shanks cooked to perfection and served with rice. Sounds dahl-licious, yes! Meals are limited to 60 members and their guests so put your name on the board early to avoid disappointment.

For catering purposes, please place your names up on the dinner board by Thursday lunchtime if you are attending. If you are off the island, you can email your intentions to attend Friday's dinner to pfox54@bigpond.com.

11th Macleay Island Classic 2019

Canoe Race around Macleay Island

With just over a month to go, the Macleay Island Classic is looking great. Competitors are registering and booking accommodation on the island, whilst we are receiving emails from Canoe Clubs to say that they are coming.

Our club is in training with hopefully three of our Outriggers (OC6) in the race. The Barracoutas who have won the relay race for the last six years have been spotted training out on the water. Let's hope someone is good enough to challenge them this year.

This year the event will run over two days, March 23 and 24. On the Saturday, the Main Event will be held which consists of single and double Ocean Skis, Kayaks, Outriggers etc. They will set out from the Tingira Boat Club in an anticlockwise direction and circumnavigate the island arriving back at the finish line at the Boat Club. Up to $3,500 in prize money will be awarded for the winners of this event along with up to 67 category medals awarded for age and craft.

Competitors are invited to stay Saturday night and enter our Sunday team events, which includes the Outriggers (OC6) and the Relay Race. This should be quite spectacular, especially with many of our members involved. Trophies will be awarded for each of these events.

The Gala Event Dinner, to which you are all invited, will be held on the Saturday night. Bookings can be made online at Trybooking. The link is on our website, tingiraboatclub.com, along with a lot more information about the race and the link to register for the event online.

Please get behind this event and support it.

Sailing roundup

Heading for another sailing day...and more wind then you poke a stick at lol. It looks like we are again in for a windy weekend with a strong probability of cyclone Oma passing close enough to cancel our planned sailing event.

However, even if sailing is cancelled, we will still be conducting further sailing lectures at 9.00am at the club on the parts of a boat and the steps taken in rigging and unrigging dinghys. Peter Fox will be addressing a range of topics which will be relevant for our sailing schedule, so come down and join in an informative morning.

Recently, I have mentioned our handicapping system which we will be employing for this year's racing calendar. Ivan Scott has done a great job in formatting a system that will work out the results of each racing day, so thank you Ivan for your help and we look forward to using it in our next sailing events.

As a lot of the members are aware, I have recently bought a 10ft skiff which are copies of dinghy's sailed in the 1900's. Last Sunday I had the opportunity to crew for another skiff at Bulimba; while it was great to be leading at the first mark the strengthening 20knt wind caught us out and we went in for another swim. It appears if you want a challenge sailing these skiffs will certainly test you, even if you are an experienced skiff sailor.

Hope to see you on Sunday,

Peter Deane
