Calvert Memorial Sailing Series - Event 1

Ten boats nominated for the 1st event of the Calvert Memorial Sailing Series on Sunday. It was a quite a sight to see those sails milling around the start line.

Ivan Scott, Dudley Kavanagh, Don Noble and Neville Prosser did a great job aboard the Tingira Pontoon of conducting the start sequence which had the participating yachts on their way just after 11:00am.

With a south westerly wind blowing the boats sailed down wind from the start line to the first mark. It wasn't long until there were colourful spinnakers set to make the most of the fading breeze. 'Celeste' a pretty Herreshoff Rozinante skippered by Bill Morley (Pelican Slipways) really enjoyed the light conditions and seemed to glide effortlessly through the water as she made her way to the first mark.

Unfortunately the SW breeze faded away (as per the WillyWeather wind prediction) and the fleet was lucky to reach the first mark (Banana Bank North Beacon) before it disappeared all together. The sailing committee decided to shorten the course as there seemed to be little chance of the breeze returning any time soon. Fortunately the shepherd boat, 'Impetuous' (Max and Cathy Keily), was stationed at the beacon and was able to record the time each boat rounded the mark. This enabled the sailing committee to work out both the line and handicap places for the first event. The fleet then mostly motor sailed back to Macleay Island. It was not quite the event we were hoping for - but that's sailing!

Actually everyone seemed quite happy to be just out on the bay messing about in a boat on that beautiful sunny Autumn Sunday.

TINGIRA AHOY!

Andrew Stransky's self designed and built catamaran 'Fantasia' showed impressive speed in the light breeze. It was pleasing to have both Andrew and Carolyn (Mara Stransky's parents) visit Tingira to participate in both the Tingira Trivia Night on Saturday night and the Calvert Series Event on Sunday.

John Simpkin's 'Sonsie Lass' is a regular entrant in the Calvert Memorial events. 'Sonsie Lass' is a Herreshoff H 28 ketch and sailed on very well on Sunday despite the light breeze, achieving a 2nd on handicap.

A Big Thank You To:

Ivan Scott, Dudley Kavanagh, Don Noble and Neville Prosser for their work on the pontoon starting the event.

Moss Lane and Barry Jamieson for crewing the Club safety RIB 'Sandpiper'

Pip Archdall for manning the Tingira VHF Base Station

Ivan Scott for recording and handicapping the event

Max and Cathy Keily for providing Impetuous as a shepherd boat and recording the finish times and to all the crews who turned up to participate and sail in the event!!

The Tingira Trivia Teasers Night - A Great Success

Last Saturday night's Trivia Teasers Night was well attended and as promised our trivia master, Jeanette Trefle, had everyone ruminating and cogitating over the questions and best of all - having fun. Teams got into the spirit of the evening and went to great trouble to decorated their tables (and themselves in some cases) in accordance to their team name or chosen theme.

As a result the clubroom was filled with the colours of Hawaii, bubbling flasks of colourful liquids, ship models, chocolate fountains, Mayday V sheets, life vests, period costumes, wigs, fishing rods, flares, coconuts, ukuleles, sailor caps, captain hats, - my goodness - 3 million cheers for all their efforts.

Flasks filled with smoking liquids on the Einstein Table

This crew were switched on but there was no panic evident on the Mayday Titanic Table ➔

A big thankyou to:

Jeanette Trefle for playing the part of Trivia Master and organising the questions.

Fay Hooker for volunteering to work the bar.

Moss Lane and Bob Stampton for providing transport.

And to all those who came and played the game!

TINGIRA AHOY!

Bob Stampton is certainly showing signs that he was enjoying his day out in the Calvert Series on 'Fantasia' with Andrew Stransky and Carolyn Smith.

Our thanks to Andrew and Carolyn for visiting Tingira and sharing Mara's sailing progress and achievements to date.
