The Full Story of the OC6 (Mis) Adventure

Secretary's note: Last week's Special Lock Down Edition (02 July) of the Tingira Ahoy! contained a report of the OC6 Team (The Castaways) participation in the Karragarra SailPast . But only half the story was told. Readers were asked to await the next edition of the Tingira Ahoy! to find out what happened the following day because it was on the Sunday that the real fun began. So here it is - the story in full, containing - The Grim Discovery! The Conspiracies! The Intrigues and Blaming! and then the exciting conclusion.

Saturday Recap (as told by Peter Hayward)

A cold bleak Saturday greeted those paddlers and fellow boaties who braved the elements for the Karragarra SailPast and Blessing.

Our Castaway themed paddlers did a great job decorating the canoe and dressing up for the occasion as you can see.

Castaways - Karen Smith, Anne Wyborn, Kerry Otter, Chris Medcalf, Peter Hayward (hiding behind the sail) and Terry Hunter

After being Blessed apparently, some refreshments and frivolities and with a lack of interest in paddling the canoe home we decided to tie the OC6 to a tree up on the beach and return on Sunday to paddle her home.
(and then)

TINGIRA AHoy!

Sunday

A grim surprise to find no OC6 canoe tied to the tree on Karragarra Beach where we had left her.

Conspiracy theories and blame flew everywhere from the knot tier (or tyer), Ian W-W's stupid rope (no thicker than a piece of string), to hooligans and the chief suspects the Commodore (Colin McInnes) and Vice-Commodore (Alan Early) of the Karragarra Yacht Club.

Perhaps they used our OC6 to paddle back to Lamb Island after the SailPast party. Then what about the strange 3 toed footprints found near the tree to which the OC6 had been tied.

Our club and all the authorities were alerted and a major air and sea search began.

Kerry Otter in the meantime with the help of SeaLink had found our canoe in Lucas passage on Lamb Island. Interesting!

Chris, Terry and Peter headed off in Chris's boat La Desperado to see if they could locate her.

Yes, we found her and with incredible skill and faced with huge challenges and danger the lads began the salvage tow home.

TINGIRA AHOY!

Unfortunately, by now the authorities had reported the canoe stolen and halfway home we were accosted by the water police as the said thieves.

Eventually allowed free, we completed the operation and enjoyed the rest of the day and a few ales at the Car and Boat Show. Doubt we'll ever know the details of her journey or how the canoe got to Lamb.

Least we didn't lose a bus but that's another story.

Cheers

(Peter Hayward - Paddling Co-ordinator)

Hi all,

Due to tides, time, weather and the dog ate my paddle excuses, we have decided to cancel Casual OC6 Paddling till September.

These short, cruisy paddles also benefit with a pitstop and swim which isn't that appealing over winter.

We shall keep the longer Advanced sessions going over winter as long as we continue to get the numbers.

Invitation to the Carrington Classic

Members of the Tingira Boat Club have been invited by the Carrington Boating Club to attend their annual regatta 'The Carrington Classic' on Saturday 17 July 2021.

The Carrington Boating Club is situated upon the Brisbane River at Carrington Rocks within the Horace Window Reserve Corinda.

The day includes floating and static displays of boats, live music ('Chapel Hill') with food and drinks available for sale.

The day will also feature the "COVID Cup" handicap dinghy race.

Last year 9 Tingira members attended the event by travelling over in the Club bus (on a user pays basis). Although a bit cool and wet they all enjoyed the trip and it was interesting to see / compare a similar boating club as our own in action.

We are planning a similar trip this year and taking the Club bus over to the Carrington Boating Club for the day at a cost of $15 per head.

Members interested in attending this year's event please contact Secretary Peter Fox 0417841009 or admin@tingiraboatclub.com ASAP as the bus seats are limited.
